Review the instructions for our next book project that is due on Friday, March 21st. Write at least ONE line from the book that you feel is important. Then explain WHY that line is important. It could be that it reveals something about a character, it represents the theme of the book, it is an example of foreshadowing, it offers a vivid description of the setting, etc. Don't forget to also record the line in your reading composition notebook so that you may use it for your "One-Pager" book project.
